

Hello everyone! I'm Makai, an actor/comedian/creative currently working on my Master's in Acting at DePaul. I'm originally from Richmond, Virginia, and moved to the city over the summer to pursue the program and kickstart my career. I'm ecstatic and quite grateful to be working on Scorpio again for this stage reading. The writing and characterizations drew me in the first time I read it, and its exploration into gender and queer identities was a refreshing thing to have acknowledge in a piece of work. I hope you all enjoy, and if you'd like to see me do more of my thing, check out my Instagram @makai.walk
