

Fania is the daughter of veterans Franklin and PJ Bourn of Danville Illinois. The second eldest of 6, she discovered her love for acting in a fifth grade school production and it was up from there. A graduate from Illinois State University with a double major in Spanish and Acting. In 2016 Fania relocated to Chicago where she was blessed to be nominated For her talents and continues to receive ongoing recognition. Chicago is where she began as background on FOX, NBC and SHOWTIME networks; moving to Core positions and finally landing her a speaking role on Chicago P.D.; Season 7, Ep. 6. Her work in Independent Films can be found on several platforms. With a background in singing, Fania gained a liking for Voice Over and has begun her career in it.